

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 24, 2009

Caribbean Goes North Event

Two lucky people will have a chance to win a trip for two to the Caribbean, but before they can go to the Caribbean the Caribbean is coming to Kelowna.

Kelowna International Airport - YLW and Air Canada Vacations is hosting the Caribbean Goes North event on Friday August 28 between 12 and 4 p.m.

Representatives from the Bahamas, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, St. Lucia, Antigua and Caribbean Tourism Boards will be at the airport promoting their destinations as well as various Caribbean resorts. "Although we do not offer non-stop flights from Kelowna to the Caribbean, Air Canada Vacations offers free connections to Calgary and Vancouver for those flying through these two locations to the Caribbean from YLW," says Sam Samaddar, Airport Director. "This event is just one of many initiatives we are doing throughout the year to support our air carriers." It is expected an event in mid-October promoting the non-stop air service to Mexico from YLW will also take place at the airport.

Parking for the event is free. Attendees are asked to park in the short-term lot and bring in their parking stub to be stamped at the event.

Everyone who attends the Caribbean Goes North event will have the opportunity to enter their name for a chance to win a trip for two to Santa Clara, Cuba at the new 5 star Royal Hideaway Ensenachos, located on one of the best beaches in Cuba!

For more information visit the airport's website at www.ylw.aero.

-30-

For more information, contact:

Jenelle Turpin
Airport Communications Coordinator
250 765-5125 ext 207
Cell: 250 317-0579